

Note: Submitted!

Covered wagon - South West Rickshaw
Drag/Concussion - ... Something in Blue
As seen in photo - Loose Pattern

DAVID FLYNN LOOSE PATTERN

Steel/Wood/53"x60"x36"/$4,600.00

2017

Note: Also, Jury
y/m Gec Park
net w/ H...
Fried

I try to be true to the materials and tell some type of story. Coming from an educational background, there is usually a teachable moment in the work. At the same time, as author, I hope to evoke some curiosity and mystery as to its meaning.

Loose Pattern originated from an oak log I acquired in Bonita AZ. I opened it up and stood it on end. There it sat for almost a year. It wasn't until thumbing through a book on Revolutionary Memorabilia I found examples of wood patterns for the casting of lead. I was drawn to the rough beauty, yet functional aspect of this old process. As I began developing my design on a much larger scale, the piece took on a life of its own. I had a concept, look and feel in mind, but other than that, it was just putting in the time and enjoying the ride.